About Us

In the 90s there was no internet. Nowadays you can hardly imagine that. If you wanted to play the lottery you had to buy your tickets at a local store or kiosk.

The results of the lottery could be seen weekly on TV or you had to read the draw results in the newspapers.

In these years there were hardly any foreign lotteries to play. The German Lotto 6 aus 49; was one of the first major European lottereries that attracts players outside Germany due to the huge jackpots. People who lived close to the borders drove to Germany to buy their lottery tickets there.

It was pretty funny to see huge spikes in traffic to Germany once the jackpot went up rapidly. More and more people try their luck to win the jackpot

The founder of Euro Lottery Services (ELS Lotto) is a enthusiastic lottery player as well and recognized the opportunity to buy lotto tickets not only for himself but for other players as well.

If you are driving to Germany to buy some lottery tickets ...

Buying lottery tickets for other enthusiastic lottery players

If you are going to Germany by car to buy your lottery tickets for the German 6 aus 49 Lotto, it is just as easy to buy some extra lottery tickets for other players as well. This idea was the start of our current company.

When the internet became more popular in the late 90s ELS Lotto decided to provide a page on the internet that makes it very easy to purchase original lottery tickets on behalf of their customers.

In addition to play the German Lotto, it was also possible to play other lotteries as well.

Over the years, both the internet and the number of lotteries grew. Nowadays, in addition to the large national lotteries, the number of transnational lotteries; have also emerged. Both in Europe and especially in the United States, the various jackpots sometimes reach unprecedented heights. You probably have seen some notable and huge wins over time in the news. If you want to know more about all big lotteries that can be played we have an overview of the best lotteries online in the world.

Although much has changed in the last 30 years, fortunately many things have remained unchanged. In this way we know many players from the very beginning and we still take care of their lottery tickets. We make it very easy and save them a lot of time.

ELS Lotto may call itself the first lottery ticket service in Europe.

We are very proud of that and try to improve every day.

We’re helping with your lottery dreams. What would you do with so many millions once you win?
